To the recommender:

The person whose name appears to be above is applying for the Philips D. Peters Regional Planning Fellowship Program at the Chicago Metropolitan Agency for Planning. To assist the process, please write a detailed letter of recommendation that evaluates this applicant's qualifications and potential for the study and practice of planning or planning- related field. Please include information about the length of time you have known the applicant and in what connection (student, advisee, etc.) and against whom you are measuring the applicant (for example, your students, other applicants, etc.). Our admissions process does not base its decision solely on letter grades or grade point averages. In our attempt to evaluate unquantifiable factors, we will rely heavily on your candid and objective evaluation. Specific examples that demonstrate a candidate's initiative, resourcefulness, work ethic, and/or teamwork skills are particularly helpful. Place this form and your letter of recommendation in a sealed envelope and give/mail it to the applicant before the deadline. The applicant's signature on this page indicates that the applicant has waived any right to access recommendation letter.
